OFFICIAL BIOGRAPHY

About Pastor Luvell Stepter

Pastor Luvell Stepter is the founder and Senior Pastor of The Gathering, a thriving faith community in his hometown of Chicago. A dynamic leader, prophetic voice, and visionary entrepreneur, Pastor Stepter's life reflects an unwavering commitment to faith, purpose, and empowering others.

Born and raised in Chicago, his spiritual journey began early at Indiana Avenue Pentecostal Church of God, where he experienced salvation and accepted his call to ministry at just 11 years old. Under the mentorship of the late Bishop Charles E. Davis, Luvell grew in wisdom and service, eventually holding key leadership roles in the Illinois District Council, including Vice Chairman of the Brotherhood and other statewide positions.

In addition to his pastoral calling, Pastor Stepter is a multifaceted creative force. He is the CEO of F.L.A.M.E. Productions Inc. and the founder of Cuzzo® Clothing Company, a global brand worn by celebrities and professional athletes. As a published author, branding coach, and sought-after speaker, he travels the country sharing messages of purpose, identity, and kingdom living.

With a divine mission to lead this generation into the Glory of God, Pastor Luvell seeks to equip and ignite those hungry for more—helping them manifest God's Kingdom on Earth as it is in Heaven.

He currently resides in Chicago with his wife, Karla, and their son, Noah.
